

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA

October 28, 2003

During the 2003/2004 season, the Los Angeles Philharmonic will offer Education Programs that will not only help music teachers enrich their offerings, but assist classroom teachers in integrating music into the curriculum. Extensive lesson plans, written in alignment with the State of California content area standards, are given to all participating teachers. The professional development programs for educators include: Music for Educators; Music for Elementary Educators; Common Grounds/Common Language-Professional Development for Educators (a collaborative project with MOCA, LA Opera, LA Master Chorale and Cal Arts Community Partnership (CAP) program); and Symphonies for Schools.

I, THEREFORE, MOVE THAT the Board of Supervisors hereby reduce parking fees for educators attending these workshops at the Walt Disney Concert Hall to $4.00 for the following dates and times: Music for Elementary Educators: November 7, 14 and 22, 2003, 60 vehicles; Music for Educators: January 21 and February 18, 2004, 100 vehicles; Common Ground/Common Language: January 31 and February 7, 2004, 75 vehicles and; Symphonies for Schools: February 28 and March 13, 2004, 80 vehicles.
